

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Savvy Janine Shields, Miss America 2017, is a Fayetteville native who has grown up in our midst, a product of the Fayetteville Public Schools and this unique and nurturing community, and
- WHEREAS: each school she attended, from Vandergriff ("Miss America's First School") to McNair Middle School, to Woodland Junior High and Fayetteville High, now proudly claim her as she joins the ranks of their other talented alumnae who have reached national acclaim, and
- WHEREAS: she is a talented dancer and artist, a committed spokesperson and example of a healthy lifestyle, and an able representative of the State of Arkansas, the University of Arkansas and the City of Fayetteville, and
- WHEREAS: Savvy has exhibited great poise, confidence and talent on her road to bringing home to Arkansas the title of Miss America 2017, and
- WHEREAS: now embarking on her year of travel across this country, not only promoting her personal platform of eating better to live better, but also serving as a Goodwill Ambassador for Children's Miracle Network Hospitals and acting as an ambassador for the State of Arkansas and City of Fayetteville, Savvy carries with her our support, our best wishes and our great admiration, and
- WHEREAS: we are all proud of Savvy not only for what she has accomplished and will accomplish as Miss America 2017, but also for the kind and caring young woman she has proven herself to be and for the example she sets for all our young daughters, granddaughters, nieces and friends, exhibiting to them that it is important to pursue your dreams and follow your heart and to commit all that you are to becoming the very best version of yourself you can be,

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim October 22, 2016 as in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 22th day of October, 2016.
